Check fraud, counterfeiting, employee theft and identity theft are among the fastest-growing problems affecting businesses in the nation producing estimated annual losses of $10 billion. Learn how your business can combat these problems. A panel of experts will be addressing the issues affecting the industry and methods of mitigating your exposure to fraud.

Moderator

Laurance Selnick, SVP, Webster Bank, Cash Management

Larry Selnick has over 25 years of banking experience including cash management systems, bank operations and product management. Larry joined Webster's management team to design, implement and deliver Cash Management services to commercial clients. He will discuss fraud risk and what customers can do to mitigate their exposure to fraud.

Speakers

James W. Bergenn, Esq., Shipman & Goodwin LLP

Attorney Bergenn has over 30 years involvement in criminal cases, mostly white collar. He represents victims as well as those accused, federal and state. Also, he performs Internal investigations and coordinates the handling of civil and criminal issues. Jim Bergenn was formerly appointed by U.S. Courts as Assistant Federal Public Defender and by the Governor as a Special Prosecutor investigating State Police, but his experience is generally as a private attorney.

John Cook, Special Agent, United States Secret Service

Special Agent John Cook, United States Secret Service, will provide the federal law enforcement perspective on fraud. Agent Cook is currently assigned to the Connecticut Financial Crimes Task Force which is responsible for investigating financial crimes occurring in the State of Connecticut.
