

HARTFORD COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

HCBA's Civil Litigation Committee presents

Leading Cases that Every Trial Lawyer Should Know

Friday, April 22, 2022, 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Program qualifies for 4.0 CT CLE Credits

This programs are presented via Zoom

(Zoom information & handouts will be emailed 1 day prior to program)

About the Program

This virtual program emphasizes research in areas of the law that civil trial lawyers should have in their trial arsenal. Plaintiff's and Defense Lawyers will present on the following subject areas:

- Experts Relying Upon Hearsay
- Use of the Whelan Rule
- Standard of Proof on Concurrent Causation
- Recreational Use Statute
- Liability of Employer for Tort of Employee
- Liquor Liability pursuant to C.G.S sec. 30-102
- Mode of Operation Rule
- Negligent Security
- Non Delegable Duty Doctrine
- Highway Defect Statute
- Truth and Veracity in the Court room
- Proper Use of Rebuttal Testimony
- Statement in Learned Treatises
- Status of Case Law Relating To Moratorium in Workers' Compensation cases
- Elements of Fraudulent Concealment
- The Continuing Course of Conduct Doctrine
- The Continuing Representation Doctrine
- Opinion Testimony By A Non Disclosed Treater
- Snow and Ice cases
- Premises Liability Claims
- Emotional Distress
- Possessor of Land Duties to Invitees- Assumption of the Risk/ Last Clear Chance

Panelists:

John L. Laudati, Partner - Murphy, Laudati Kiel & Rattigan, LLC

John G. Miller, Partner - Hassett & Donnelly, P.C.
Susan O'Donnell, Partner - Halloran Sage
Patrick Tomasiewicz, Partner - Fazzano & Tomasiewicz, LLC

Moderator:

Michael J. Kopsick, Managing Partner - Kahan, Kerensky Capossela, LLP

$75 HCBA Member with 2022-23 dues paid
$150 Non-Member

Questions: programinfo@hartfordbar.org or Tel: 860-525-8106

Hartford County Bar Association | 100 Pearl Street, 4th floor, Hartford, CT 06103